SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Green said that he and Mr. Davidson toured the buildings and everything looks great. The welcome back event is Wednesday, rain or shine. We will move indoors in case of rain. Starts at 5:00 pm and movie at 7:30pm. Congratulations are in order for the football team who won vs Southeastern 22-8. A big thank you to Bob Walmsley, Lee Walmsley, Jay Blazius and Rodney Harris, Clintondale Alums who have done a lot of good things for our students through the golf outing and the foundation raffle. We are very proud to have them involved. Thank you to Mrs. King, Ms. Davey and the Parker staff for painting the play ground for the kids, it looks great. Ms. Cottrell and staff painting inspirational messages on the bathroom stalls at Rainbow, which is great. Meloney Cargill spoke about the C2 Pipeline program at the high school. Ms. Sonja Hall has been reassigned by Wayne State and will be missed, she did a great job. This summer 11 students went to Wayne State for a 10 day college experience where they could explore 6 avenues of learning. Our students participated in Dentistry, Nursing and Social Work. There was a competition where they had to research and present and our students were very successful. Taijah Lewis earned first place in Dentistry and received a $2,500 scholarship. Courtney Martin earned a Judges Choice Award in Social Work. Jaida Robinson earned 3rd place in Nursing and a $1,500 scholarship. Alayjah and Alaynah Walker participated in Nursing. All will be able to take a dual enrollment course at the Mike Illitch School of Business. Great job to all.
