SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Green congratulated the leaders in our district. We had a MAC all academic student. The Coaches Hall of Fame event was held and we had three people inducted - Bill Apisa, Shawn Murray and Richard Juien. The Grand Raffle is Wednesday at Fern Hill and there are dinner tickets available. Mr. Green introduced Jeremiah Davidson, who shared his Eagle Scout project with us. He is building mini libraries and filling them with books and placing them at all schools in our district.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT

The Seniors had Scholarship Day with Alumni. Several former dragons worked with the seniors to fill out scholarship applications. Class of the Classes is this week to earn bragging rights as to who is the best class at the High School. Ms. Spriggs will have mock interviews tomorrow so students will practice their job interview skills. Congratulations to senior Toni Willis who took 2nd place in this years' Optimist Oratorical contest. Middle School held a PBIS event-the eggtravanga where students gathered 2000 eggs filled with goodies. Boys and Girls track season has started. Thursday there will be an honor roll bowling field trip. Over 130 students are on the honor roll and eligible to attend. 5th Grade open house is Tuesday, April 30th from 6:30-8:00 pm.

The Parker Family Game Night is Thursday at 6:00. 5th graders at all elementary schools continue to take the Mstep. Rainbow Elementary will be hosting books and treats as well as their open house on May 15th. Run Club has begun for all elementary schools.

ACADEMIC SPOTLIGHT - Parker Elementary - Fun with Science.

Parker Elementary School students presented information on their favorite animals. The students chose their animal, did the research and created posters highlighting their animal.
